

Davidson Elementary
International Spotlight
December 18, 2020

Iran

Iran was previously known as Persia.

Official Language: Farsi

Carpet weaving is the most widespread handicraft in Iran.

Iran has some of the largest oil reserves in the world.

The Azadi Tower was built in 1971 to celebrate the 2,500 years of the Persian Empire.

To learn how to do the Persian Belly Dance, watch Pierre Lebig (1st Grade) give a demonstration!

https://youtu.be/yY\_L3D8BFss

Pierre Lebig and his younger brother, Bruno, are proud of their Iranian culture!

In Iran, kebabs are served either with rice or with bread. A dish of chelow white rice with kebab is called chelow kabab, which is considered the national dish of Iran.

